Mr. Lodge told the Senate it probably would be impossible to gather the data desired within less time than four months, and in response to a question from Senator Halo he stated that in all probability it would be impossible to present a complete report during the present session of Congress.

Mr. Hale spoke in appreciation of the fact that there was a likelihood of even a partial report during the present session. He turned then to the contemplation of the possibilities in connection with the fall politics.

"These questions will meet us at thome," he said, "and they will be as thome."

FIRE IN CHARLOTTE SUBURB.

Dulstown Settlement Pructically Destroyed by Flames.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Charlotte, N. C., April I.—Fire of unknown origin, which was twice extinguished, late to-day, practically destroyed a settlement known as Dulstown, in the nerthern limits of Charlotte. The department was called to the seene first about noon and extinguished the blaze in a burning cottage in short order. Two hours later it was recalled to the same spot, and two cottages were burned before the fire was mastered. In about the same length of time the third call came in, and this time twelve houses were destroyed before the fire was subdued. The wind blew a gale, and this as well as the distance from the nearest fire plug handicapped the fire fighters. The loss falls on the property owners, but more heavily in a smaller way on the renters, who lost all their belongings and mag no insurance.
